Xrosswork

The future of work is here.

Xrosswork is the leading internal freelancing platform provider for enterprises. As the private "Upwork" for medium and large-sized companies, we are powered by our pioneering AI and machine learning capabilities to match the perfect talent to the help needed - even if they are not in their network. Through our integrated resource management software, Xrosswork is the enabler for seamless collaboration.

Allow your organisation to decentralise and reinvent itself with a truly agile workforce. Unleash the full potential of your firm's human capital and productivity with us.

Work in the future with Xrosswork today.
